We, the Senior Class will Mr. Henson the seven dwarfs.

PROPHECY—1971

SETTING: On an island.

Chic: Well Buford, We have spent five great years here. I'm glad we left our wives when we did. I thought we never would get away from them. Beula could haul in more food in one meal than I could eat in a week.
Buford: Yeah, I know what you Mean. Bertha was always nagging me to death. Let's take a walk down the beach.
Chic: Look over there! A bottle in the sea, see? Let's put it with all the rest of the bottles in our collection.
Buford: Wait a minute! Chic, ain't there something in that bottle?
Chic: Sure is. Let's take a gander. It looks like some dirty old information from our wives, of the graduating class of '71.
Buford: You mean your wife graduated? Last I heard of Bertha, she was still in the eighth grade.
Chic: Sure enough. Bertha and Beula wrote to give us some up-to-date information about their good old classmates.
Buford: Says here that Charlie Bunnell was promoted for inventing the 3-point padded plow hitch.
Chic: Bill Coon turned his car over 3 times to set a world record while trying to avoid a Standard Oil truck.
Buford: Jerry Davies is now head of his own computer dating service. That a boy, Jerry!!
Chic: John Hodges is teaching English in place of Mrs. Ed.
Buford: Good Old Chuck Kelsey—I wonder if he is still loving his "Hinds" ketchup?
Chic: Here they say Rick Lyon is playing center for the Chicago Cubs??????
Buford: Lee Mitchell got fired last week from his managing job because he got that chocolate mess all over the balls.
Chic: Says here Steve Norris wore out three pairs of shoes while walking a mile for a camel.
Buford: Randy Reahard has finally made it as Red Cross Man Of The Year.
Chic: They say John Shoaf is making a living making love notes a dime a dozen.
Buford: Tim Slauter got some Louis Armstrong Lips—Watch out Tina!!!!!
Chic: Ron Snellenbarger is still working in the valley of the Jolly Green Giant.
Buford: Denny Swick, Paula Goff, and LuAnn Newnum made a big hit as the Swinging Toadstoll Trio at the Mush-room Palace.
Chic: Brad Swick is president of the sheep-saving agency.
Buford: And remember Sheila Cunningham—the Janis Joplin of the 70's—with her bottle of Southern Comfort, sing-ing "Me and a Boy Called Tank".
Chic: Linda Patrick has begun writing her own gossip column in the underground newspaper at CCC.
Buford: Ann Greenburg is making a small fortune painting Beatrice T-Shirts.
Chic: The last I saw of Lou Ann Kennedy, was in the Out-of-Towner's Hospital in a state of shock, repeating, Oh, my God . . . Oh, my God . . .
Buford: Mary Kitterman is traveling west—California or Bust!!!
Chic: Tina Marquess has a new job as PA system for Shea Stadium.
Buford: Vic McKnight has a long-lasting career as cheerleader for Reahard's Rompers.
Chic: Jackie Mitchell has her own body dynamics class on Channel 36-24-24 every morning.
Buford: Debbie Townsend graduated from the Air Force with a B.W. degree.
Chic: Jada Seaman is the new driver's education teacher at the old CCC high school.
Buford: Diana Pendleton—the one and only Miss Efficient—working for Bell Telephone.
Chic: Poor ol Pam Wilson—she is modeling her loose knit hot pants with accessories for Snodgrass News Fashions Magazine.
Buford: Brenda Gross is just getting out of the hospital recovering from a smashed nose that she caught in a revolving door.
Chic: Well uh . . . It looks like uh . . . Dave uh . . . Snellenbergar uh . . . ah well . . .
